

It appears there have been high school newspapers in Paw Paw just about as long as we've had a high school. I have been fortunate to obtain copies from three periods of PPHS history:

1887 - PPHS 'Progress' - Copies provided by Pam Pender, from the Local History Archives of the Van Buren District Library in Decatur, Michigan. Papers are from the estate of Percy Buck Paw Paw High School, Class of 1892.

1917 - PPHS 'WAPPAW' - The paper that apparently evolved into the school yearbook. I found and purchased the issues online, copied them, and donated originals to the Local History Archives of the Paw Paw District Library.

1962 - PPHS 'WAR DRUMS' - Only put out two issues, as it was a journalism class competition paper, instigated by the teacher - Mr. Wilfrid BeBeau, to goad the 'Tribal News' into putting out a better product - it worked.

1963 - PPHS 'TRIBAL NEWS' - Saved from my senior year at Paw Paw High. -DAN SMITH, PPWP
